

Since 1944

the FEI Research Foundation has been an independent source of ideas, service and expertise for the financial community. This Annual Report documents the activities of the Foundation in the past year—research, fundraising, fiscal stewardship—and previews new opportunities for the Foundation and the financial executives it serves.